

COMPETITION RULES

Art. 1 Conditions of the contest

These rules set out the conditions of the competition organized by Hilarious SPRL.

Participants are deemed to be familiar with the content of these rules. Participation in this contest presupposes the unconditional acceptance of these rules by the participants. No dispute in this matter will be admitted. The rules are available at <https://celebration.hilarious.be/en>.

Only one prize can be won per customer during the entire contest period.

Art. 2 Competition procedure and awarding of the prize

The contest runs from 26/12/22 (00h00min00sec) to 13/01/23 (23h59min59sec) inclusive. Winners will be notified by 31/01/23.

In an animated game, participants must successfully reach the end of the game in order to access the tiebreaker question. Each participant can only answer the tiebreaker question once.

In the event of a tie, the winner will be the person who answered the tiebreaker question correctly or closest to it. If there is still a tie, the participant who validated his/her entry first will be declared the winner.

Only completed entry forms received by the end of the contest will be considered.

For a chance to win the prize:

1. Participants must enter and successfully finish the game in order to access the tiebreaker question.
2. Entrants must get as close as possible to the answer to the tiebreaker question. Prizes will be awarded based on the rank order of the answers to the tiebreaker question.
3. In the event of winning, participants must provide their mailing address as the prize will be sent to that address. If this is not the case, the participants will not be included in the ranking and will not be entitled to the prize.

The prize consists of: a mini freezer filled with chocolate magnum ice cream.

It is indivisible and must be accepted as such. Under no circumstances may the prize be exchanged for other products or cash.

Winners will be notified by email. Winners have 5 working days from the date of sending the e-mail to send us the desired delivery address in the case of a physical prize. After the 5 working day period, their right to the prize will irrevocably expire.

Prizes that have not been claimed by the winners within the given time period will be offered, by e-mail, to the participants who did not win and who are ranked first after the winners, within the limits of available stocks and according to the "first come, first served principle". The number of participants selected for this second phase of distribution corresponds to twice the number of prizes remaining.
